MLP & Developmental Evaluation

Complexity, Emergence and adaptive programming

Each diagram can be seen as a step in Martu integrating the program into the Martu world – Martu ownership. Each diagram speaks not only to MLP participants but to a broader community

Each diagram is explained by Martu in various Martu settings again and again and in this way the Martu story changes. Explaining it in whitefella settings can change the whitefella story.

Strategies and aspiration
 Martu aspirations to shape a new future are awakened, and Martu form strategies to make this happen
